

Your duty let the apostle show

1. Your du - ty let the a - pos - tle show; you
2. Work for the weak, and sick, and poor, rai -
3. Your la - bor which pro - ceeds from love, Je - ought, you ought to la - bor so, in Je - sus' cause em - ment and food for them pro-cure, and mind - ful of God's sus shall gra - cious - ly ap-prove, with full fe - li - ci -

ployed, your call - ing's works at times pur - sue, and word, en - joy the bless - ed - ness to give, lay ty, with bright - est crowns your loan re - pay, and keep the a-pos - tle Paul* in view, and use your hands for God.

out your get-tings to re - lieve the mem - bers of your Lord.
tell you in that joy - ful day, "You did it un - to me."

* the apostle Paul = the tent-maker in the first printing.

WORDS: Charles Wesley, MS Acts, from Unpub. Poetry, 2:403-4., stanza 1.

MUSIC: Timothy E. Kimbrough, CARRBORO

Music © 1996; words © 1993, rev. © 1997, General Board of Global Ministries, GBGMusik, 475 Riverside Dr., New York, NY 10115. All rights reserved.