

Would you require what cannot be? 8

1. Would you re-quire what can - not be? The
 2. "You shall be per - fect" here be - low, he
 3. Thus, thus may I the prize pur - sue, and thing im - pos - si - ble to me is pos - si - ble with spoke it and it must be so; but first he said, "Be all the ap - point - ed ways pass through to per - fect pov - er -

God: I trust your truth to make me just, the om poor; hun - ger, and thirst, re - pent, and grieve, in ty: thus, let me, Lord, your - self at - tain, and ni - po - tence of God I trust, the vir - tue of your blood. hum ble, meek o - be - dience live, and la - bor, and en - dure."

 give you up your own a - gain, that lost in you I'll be.

WORDS: Charles Wesley, Scripture Hymns (1762), 2:139-40.
 MUSIC: Lowell Mason (1939), MERIBAH